One word here, belore we proceed further, as to the specific charges. The President says he is willing that specific charges should be met, but specific charges only. - What is inquiry? D es pfyllow ifint Lecause a man wishes inqui ky made into the conduct of a public servant, that he believes him guilty? May be he is a as Lindsey, Jr., were chosen a committee to rewarm triend, and wishes, his innocence established, purt a list of delegates present. Should there be no inquiry without specific pharges of guilt? A specific charge of guilt would be carre for the impeachment, of an Executive officer, led cause for inquiry there would the no need of inquiry then. Inquiry was for the purpose of ascertaining if specific than ges could be found against a public officer Suppresa inquiry and how could specific charges ever be arrived at ? But never mind the argunicut, that is plain enough -what did Congress say, when it instituted the committee, about specific charges ? It declared, after a long, and full discussion of the question, brought before The House in the shape of amendment to the Resolution of Mr. Wise, that specific charges SHOULD NOT BE REQUIRED | but-that the inquiry should be general and minute. But the President, (who by the way has always browbeat and silenced the subservient House of Representativec. I declared that general and minute inquiries should not be answered man specific charges alone would meet with any attention. The Committee and the House bowed the knee and the President walked over their necks in triumph general inquiries were not answered. But further, Congress says if member suspects bad management, he shall have the privilege of making inquiries into the facts before he makes an accusation; but the tresident says he shill not singui. . Laif he ene. pects bad management let him make his specific charges-and-have the officer . impeached! The House declares that inquiry may be made without hading for its object impeachment, but
